Hendl & Murray Engineering Ltd

Hendl and Murray has been supplying capital equipment, services and support to Tetra Pak for more than 30 years. This longevity speaks volumes about the strength of the relationship which is based on integrity, trust and partnership.

Tetra Pak is only as strong as our respective global and local supply chains and Hendl and Murray has consistently delivered to the highest level of goods and services enabling both companies to become highly respected suppliers to the New Zealand and International dairy industry.
